FROM THE THRONE OF GLORY!

Topic: Are You Building or Displaying?

Text: 1 Corinthians 14:12

Introduction

In many churches today, there is a strong desire for spiritual expression, speaking, singing, prophesying, demonstrating power. While this desire is not wrong, the real question is: What is driving it?

Are we using our gifts to build others, or are we simply trying to display ourselves?

The Corinthian church faced this same tension. They were gifted, vibrant, and spiritually active, but they were also disorderly, competitive, and sometimes self-centred. Paul did not condemn their gifts; he corrected their motives and methods.

This message confronts us with a simple but serious question: Are you building the church, or displaying yourself?

INSIGHT ON 1 CORINTHIANS 14:12

Paul says: “Since you are eager for gifts...”

This shows that desire for spiritual gifts is good and commendable.

But then he redirects that desire:

“...try to excel in those that build up the church.”

Key word: Edify (oikodome) — meaning to build up, strengthen, or construct like a house.

This means spiritual gifts are not for:

- Personal recognition
- Spiritual competition
- Public performance

They are for:

- Strengthening believers
- Encouraging faith
- Bringing clarity and growth

God measures spiritual expression not by how impressive it looks, but by how much it builds people.

1. Display Seeks Attention; Building Seeks Transformation

Displaying is driven by the desire to be seen.

Building is driven by the desire to help others grow.

In Corinth, speaking in tongues became a spectacle, impressive, but often unhelpful because people did not understand it (1 Cor. 14:9).

2. Display Focuses on Self; Building Focuses on Others

Paul repeatedly emphasises:

“for the common good” (1 Cor. 12:7)

Displaying says:

- “How do I sound?”
- “How do I appear?”

Building asks:

- “Who is helped?”
- “Who is strengthened?”

True spirituality shifts focus from self-expression to others’ edification. A gift that does not serve others has missed its purpose.

3. Display Operates Without Control; Building Operates with Order

In chapter 14, Paul insists on order:

- Speak one at a time
- Ensure interpretation
- Maintain clarity

Why? Because:

“God is not the author of confusion but of peace” (1 Cor. 14:33)

Displaying often leads to:

- Noise without meaning
- Emotion without structure
- Activity without impact

But building requires:

- Discipline
- Clarity
- Self-control.

Maturity is not how much power you show, but how well you control it.

4. Display Seeks Applause; Building Seeks God’s Glory

Jesus warned in Matthew 6 about doing spiritual things to be seen by men.

Displaying says:

- “Notice me”

Building says:

- “Glory to God”

Paul concludes in 1 Corinthians 10:31:

“Whatever you do, do all to the glory of God.”

The ultimate test of any spiritual expression is this:

Does it point people to you, or to Christ?

CONCLUSION

God has given you spiritual gifts—but He has also given you a responsibility.

The church does not need more noise.

It needs more edification.

The question is not: “Are you gifted?” The question is: “Are you building or displaying?”

Let your life, your words, and your gifts become tools in God’s hand to strengthen His church.

Choose to build.

PRAYER POINTS

1. Lord, purify my motives and remove every desire for self-display in Jesus' name.
2. Father, help me to use my gifts to build and strengthen others.
3. Holy Spirit, teach me discipline, order, and maturity in spiritual expression.
4. Lord, let my life and gifts bring glory to You alone.
5. Father, make me a vessel of edification in Your church in Jesus' name.
